

FFA Week Activities

Correspondents : Cami High and Ruby Bennett

FFA students, seniors, and science teacher Anita Morton were all hypnotized. While under hypnosis, participants did silly things including calling their favorite celebrity on their shoe, believing they had 11 fingers, arguing that their name was Jerry, having a little alien friend, and more.

FFA Senior Faith Jacobs posing for a picture with a little friend from the petting zoo.

FFA Senior Aiden Anderson with 3rd grader Preslie Lyons at the petting zoo.

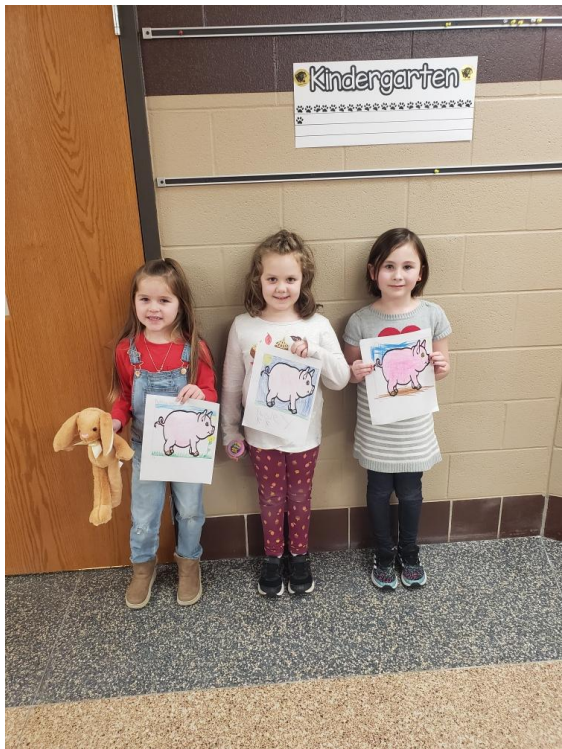

High School News

Correspondents : Cami High and Ruby Bennett

Elementary students visited the petting zoo organized by the FFA members. There were games, coloring, and the elementary kids were allowed to pet the animals. On the left, 1st grader Gage Bickle is milking a cow. On the right (From left to right), 1st graders Daltyn Parrish, Wesley Canales and Gage Bickle are petting the goat.

Kindergarteners Mia Shaffer, Paisley Rhynehart, and Stella Burtch are holding up their colored pigs.

FFA Sophomore Paige Williamson at the petting zoo.

High School News

Correspondents : Cami High and Ruby Bennett

The FFA students love their tractors. On Tuesday, February 22, 2022, Parkway held a Tractor Drive-In. Parkway FFA students drove their tractors to school for a competition. The categories included: biggest, smallest, cleanest, oldest, and the newest tractor.

High School News

Correspondents : Cami High and Ruby Bennett

From left to right, Freshman Gabriel Cross, Junior Carter Hellwarth, and Freshman Amanda Barrett all posing together after the FFA Public Speaking. All 3 did very well, and Carter will be representing Ohio at the National level during the FFA convention this fall.

FFA members pose together for a picture all dressed in official FFA attire.

FFA Pie Contest

From left to right, Freshman Scarlett Laux, Senior Aidan Morton, and Sophomore Jonas Farmer with their pies.

From left to right, Sophomore Lily Noll, Junior Emily Schaefer, and Freshman Zoey Henning all showing their pies.